

Jewish Visibility Activities

Bold Actions

- ▶ Use NCJW's EACH Woman Act social media guide to share why abortion access is a Jewish value.
- ▶ Write a blog about your Jewish values & why it's time to #BeBoldEndHyde.
- ▶ Make challah from scratch and experiment dying the dough green — then share on social media
- ▶ Plan a Shabbat dinner filled with green food: spinach salad, a veggie pizza, green beans, broccoli, and, key lime pie for dessert! Then, facilitate a Shabbat discussion on Hyde & abortion coverage.
- ▶ Hold a #BeBoldEndHyde bagel brunch with green cream cheese.
- ▶ Sponsor an Oneg Shabbat (reception) with green cookies, cake, sprinkles, and frosting. Brownie points (pun intended!) if the desserts are in the shape of an All* Above All asterisk.

Bolder Actions

- ▶ Ask your rabbi to lead a study session on Judaism and support for abortion access.
- ▶ Organize a Young Jewish Professionals happy hour to discuss the Hyde Amendment and abortion coverage.
- ▶ Work with Jewish campus organizations to host an event on abortion access.
- ▶ Submit an op-ed on Hyde to your congregational newsletter or local Jewish newspaper.
- ▶ Host a movie screening & discussion (Trapped, Entre Nos, Obvious Child, Scandal abortion episode) with your synagogue and/or a local Jewish partner. (And show All* Above All's manifesto video!)
- ▶ Ask for time on the agenda of your synagogue's sisterhood (or another like-minded organization) to highlight the Hyde Amendment at a meeting or event targeting your area's Jewish community.
- ▶ Volunteer at reproductive health organizations in the name of tikkun olam — repairing the world
- ▶ Host a Jewish craft party to make Havdallah candles from green wax, knit kippot from green yarn, or tie-dye green challah covers. Discuss abortion access and the Hyde Amendment throughout!
- ▶ Table at your Jewish Community Center using All* Above All swag, neon green candy, fact sheets, etc. Don't forget to collect petition signatures using the All* Above All template!
- ▶ Host a #BeBoldEndHyde Menorah or Mezuzah decorating party. Get lots of green paint!

Rosh Hashanah Themed Actions

- ▶ Ask your rabbi to address the Hyde Amendment and abortion access in their Rosh Hashanah sermon using NCJW's Hyde Amendment sermon guide.
- ▶ Ask to leave All* Above All swag and literature at your Jewish Community Center or synagogue front desk, bulletin board, or lobby, especially in the days leading up to Rosh Hashanah.
- ▶ Prepare apples and honey for Rosh Hashanah with only green apples.
- ▶ Wear a green kippah, pin, outfit or shoes to Shabbat or Rosh Hashanah holiday services, and let your community members know why.
- ▶ Facilitate a Rosh Hashanah meal discussion on Hyde and coverage for abortion.
- ▶ Ask your rabbis, cantors, and lay-leaders to wear green nail polish, especially on Rosh Hashanah.
- ▶ Using stencils and neon-green chalk, write messages on your synagogue or Hillel sidewalks and parking lot before everyone gathers for Rosh Hashanah services (get permission first!)
- ▶ Create a postcard addressed to the President and/or your members of Congress expressing support for the EACH Woman Act and asking them to #BeBoldEndHyde. Distribute them during Rosh Hashanah meals and encourage attendees to personalize the postcard. Then, be sure to collect and mail or deliver them to the lawmaker's office.
